Couldn't pass up sharing all these Halloween photos because the costumes are so cute!

This wonderful little cat is none other than Riley Fox, in Houston!

Standing proud is Jesse Reddam as Yo Gabba Gabba, ready to go trick or treating in the great little town of California City, California.

In New Braunfels, Cassie Reddam, friend Linda Lovett & Cassie's mom, Lisa, were big hits at a church party

And in Laredo, Rafael Farias dressed up as a red-nosed & red-headed clown, while cute Aaron E. Reyes took a break from his Spiderman duties, &

Best costumes of all a few years back were those of Steve Wright & friends as KISS!!!

STEVE

Didn't mean to leave out the Post family in the group of sports-minded families in a previous Scandal Sheet! Melli & John & sons are avid baseball enthusiasts!

....and speaking of Sports, Orli Navarro, (right) & friends, Art Trevino & Goyo Lopez, have been announcing Football games in Laredo for many years, & are apparently quite good at it!

Posing prettily w/Great-grandmom Carol Burt & a friend is sweet Giuliana Galli!

Good-looking gals, Kathy Navarro, daughters Gelly & Nela & grandmom Norma Hagy got a little culture at the Laredo Arts & Literature meeting.

Gosh, that's a mighty big 'Dillo mascot holding Victoria Landis' hand! It wasn't a Halloween costume, so what's the story?

Pretty Daniela Salinas, daughter of Guillermo & Mrs. Salinas, will be presented at the Pocahontas Ball in Laredo during the Washington's Celebration in February!

At one time, Luke De Wall wouldn't have anything to do with the man in red, but look at him now!

Wow! Damon Swisher was inducted into the National Honor Society at his Comm Arts High School!!

Good job, Damon!!

Luke's big brother, Drake, celebrated his 16th birthday with a big Cookie Cake, while big sister Alexa shined as a 20's Flapper Girl in a theater production at her school! Great outfit, Alexa!

HAPPY HANUKKAH

California, here we come!

Except for the fast-moving traffic, Lisa, Cassie & I (& their 2 dogs) enjoyed a great trip to California City to visit Jesse, Gabby & little Jesse Reddam, & Alice & Perry Reed. I also got to visit with the Coffin family, plus was treated to a night out in Riverside, where the famous Mission Inn was all lit up for Christmas.

Was impressed w/the pretty, tall & slender palm trees in Riverside, the metal Roadrunner at a roadside park in New Mexico, & recovery after surgery of Lisa's dog, Dash, who had surgery after a dog bite while visiting at the Reeds.

Larry McIntire, rest in peace!

So very sad to report that Lawrence Dale McIntire, my best friend Patsy's husband, died unexpectedly in San Antonio on November 5, 2011 after hip surgery. Larry was originally from Indiana & graduated from the Kewanna High School, where he excelled in various sports. He moved to San Antonio, & worked with Braniff Airways for 34 years. He was the Station Agent in Charge until he retired.

Larry will be missed very much by his wife Patsy, to whom he was happily married for 37 years, as well as by his 3 children & grandchildren, and also by Patsy's children, whom he helped raise. Two sisters & three brothers in Indiana also survive Larry.

LARRY, your friends & I are so glad we got to celebrate your 83rd birthday with you just a few weeks prior!

Patsy, Larry, Karla & Kathy Quay & I sang the Birthday Song to Larry at :LOS CUCOS.

In spite of sad events like this, life must go on.... And so I wish everyone a Merry Christmas, a Happy Hanukkah, & other good holiday wishes! LW
