Salinas Scandal Sheet

Congrats to Nancy Lynn Hagy, who was voted Teacher of the Year at United South Middle School in Laredo! This is quite an accomplishment, because it's only her first year at that school, AND it's the 3rd time she's received the honor! She was once selected Teacher of the Year as a Paraprofessional & again as a Teacher at Muller Elementary School! What is your secret, Nancye?

CONGRATULATIONS

Nancy teaches Home Ec & Life Skills, which comes naturally, as she's a great cook, plus mom Norma was also a Home Ec teacher! Nice going, Nancye!

And speaking of Hagy's, here's a nice picture of the family celebrating Norma's birthday at a restaurant in Laredo (except for Aric Hagy, away at A&M, and Orli Navarro, who arrived after the picture was taken.

Happy Birthday, Norma, & may you celebrate many, many more birthdays!

SPEEDY RECOVERY!

Eddie Langford had not one, not two, not three....but a FIVE-bypass heart surgery recently, & we are all so glad that he made it thru ok! Eddie doesn't drink, doesn't smoke, eats in moderation, & exercises regularly, but maybe now he'll do just the opposite?! Just kidding, Eddie! Keep well & maybe don't work too hard!?

Family & friends gathered round Eddie, & what with cards & flowers, prayers & good wishes, we're glad to say he's on the mend at home, with his own private nurse, Shawn, making him eager to get well soon! Way to go, Ed!

I recently enjoyed a nice birthday lunch for Lynn Warren (in white), w/her son, Wade, Patsy McIntire & son Pete, Karla Quay & mom Kathy, & my granddaughter Cassie.....all former Laredoans!

And BTW, if anyone is interested in Fitness Gear, Wade is the guy to contact at Fitgr.com.

Having a great time in Lake Tahoe over Spring Break were cousins Zachary McElvany, Austin Woodruff, Andrew McElvany, & Alessandro & Anissa Farias.

Aubrey Woodruff was not feeling well this particular day & the parents, Meme & Norma Salinas, the Woodruffs, McElvany's & the Farias', were off somewhere, no doubt enjoying the really beautiful scenery!

In Decatur, Alabama, Dr. Heather Shah took time off from her busy schedule to see Veggie Tales at a local theater with little daughter, Lily. What fun that was, I'm sure!

Spry Evelyn Landis drove all the way to Laredo from North Dakota w/her 2 dogs to visit Robert, Ali & Little Victoria! Wow!

Little Ryan Druker just did NOT want to be photographed, or maybe he just wanted Aunt Ana's attention!

Speaking of Victoria, here she is, sporting her new glasses, & visiting w/ cousin Arie Druker. These kids are growing up so fast, & so are their families.....Arie now has little brother, Ryan, & Victoria will have a sibling later this year!

Nice shot of the Jonathan Williams family in Aberdeen, Scotland, where Jonathan works for Schlumberger. Wife Dana, formerly Graesser, says she misses Texas Bluebonnets, so a friend sent her this beautiful picture of the Hill Country in bloom! I wonder if they ever visit nephew Daniel Wright, who is stationed in Germany?

Dan, below w/girl friend Maggie Goff, will be home for a short Leave in April....finally!

Cousins Luke De-Wall & Bella Farias had a good time at Fiesta Texas in really cute costumes!

Meanwhile, at Disneyland, Ali Kalmbach enjoyed cozying up to Goofy, but brother Ben was NOT happy w/the big guy at all! The kids & mom & dad, Christi & Michael, live in Fresno, not too, too far from Anaheim!

Haley Coffin w/a friend, seems all grown up! Wow! Must be that California sun!

Looking good, gals!

Best wishes to all of you having birthdays!

On March 29th & April 1st, we always remember our Father & Mother, Tacho & Lilia Salinas, whose birthdays were on those dates! Mother loved all kinds of fruit trees & flowers, & Father especially loved watching Boxing matches. He told jokes & funny stories & would have people in stitches! What a great pair! We love & miss you both!

I hope everyone has a blessed Easter Holiday!

The Reddams really enjoyed Germany! Lovely place!

Diana & Hector Farias go over final plans for their big Easter shindig at their ranch! Always a fun affair for family & friends!

Looks like these guys are headed for battle, but actually it was just a Paintball competition, or some such! Right, Matt Wright? (He's in the middle, looking happy—maybe he won?).

Roughing it on Enchanted Rock with Damon's Scout troop were Debbie & James Swisher. Am sure they enjoyed that great view! The rock is 425 ft. above ground & covers 640 acres!
